11.5.2.8. any other information relating to such person or any of its Representatives that would be required to be disclosed in a dissident's proxy circular in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Act and Applicable Securities Laws.

The Corporation may require any Proposed Nominee to furnish such other information as may reasonably be required by the Corporation to determine the eligibility of such Proposed Nominee to serve as a director of the Corporation or a member of any committee of the Board, including with respect to independence or any other relevant criteria for eligibility (including any stock exchange requirements) or that could be material to a reasonable Shareholder's understanding of the independence or eligibility, or lack thereof, of such Proposed Nominee.

11.6 All information to be provided in a timely notice pursuant to Section 11.5 above shall be provided as of the record date for determining Shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting (if such date shall then have been publicly announced) and as of the date of such notice. The Nominating Shareholder shall update such information forthwith if there are any material changes in the information previously disclosed.

11.7 For the avoidance of doubt, except for the Shareholders Agreement and Section 4 of this By-law, Section 11.2 above shall be the exclusive means for any person to bring nominations for election to the Board before any annual or special meeting of Shareholders. No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Corporation unless such person has been nominated in accordance with the provisions of the Shareholders Agreement, Section 4 of this By-law or this Section 11; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 11 shall be deemed to preclude discussion by a Shareholder (as distinct from the nomination of directors) at a meeting of Shareholders of any matter in respect of which such Shareholder would have been entitled to submit a proposal pursuant to the Act. The chair of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in the foregoing provisions and, if any proposed nomination is not in compliance with such foregoing provisions, to declare that such defective nomination shall be disregarded.

11.8 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 11 or any other by-law of the Corporation, any notice or other document or information required to be given to the Board pursuant to this Section 11 may only be given by personal delivery, facsimile transmission or by email (at such email address as may be stipulated from time to time by the Board for purposes of this notice), and shall be deemed to have been given and made only at the time it is served by personal delivery to the Board at the address of the principal executive offices of the Corporation, emailed (to the address as aforesaid) or sent by facsimile transmission (provided that receipt of confirmation of such transmission has been received); provided that if such delivery or electronic communication is made on a day which is a not a business day or later than 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on a day which is a business day, then such delivery or electronic communication shall be deemed to have been made on the next following day that is a business day.

11.9 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may, in its sole discretion, waive all or any of the requirements in this Section.
